FORGOTTEN SHRINES

AN ACCOUNT of SOME OLD CATHOLIC HALLS AND FAMILIES IN ENGLAND AND OF RELICS & MEMORIALS OF THE ENGLISH MARTYRS

¶ This, the most important work yet published by the Rev Dom Bede Camm, O.S.B., B.A.Oxon, will be issued by Macdonald and Evans, 4 Adam Street, Adelphi, London, W.C., during the month of October.

¶ It will be a large book, crown 4to in size, containing about 400 pp. of text, and over 100 pp. of illustrations. The illustrations, both line drawings and half tone, are many of them of exceptional merit. A beautiful photogravure of Harvington Hall forms the frontispiece. The title page is in red and black, and the binding, through the courtesy of Her Grace the Duchess of Norfolk, has the badge of the Pilgrimage of Grace stamped upon the cover.

¶ Extraordinary interest is being shown in the work, over 500 copies having been sold before a page of the book was printed. His Grace the Archbishop of Westminster, and almost every member of the Catholic Hierarchy in England have subscribed for copies, and the list includes representatives of most of the leading Catholic families.

¶ It is a book calculated to stimulate all who reverence faithfulness to the old religion, and, while it has special claims upon Catholics, it will not fail in its appeal to such as being without the fold are yet able to admire the constancy and steadfastness of those who suffered heavy fines, imprisonment, torture and death that they might remain within it.

¶ Purchasers need have no fear that this book will suffer the fate of superfluous works, and find its way into the remainder lists priced at a few shillings. Special efforts will be made to bring the purchase of the book within the reach of the humblest Catholic, but the edition is limited, and when it is exhausted the type will be distributed.

¶ The book will prove an ideal gift book, and most suitable for use by heads of convents and colleges as a prize for senior students.

¶ The price of the book is 25s. net, and, to prevent disappointment, intending purchasers are advised immediately to register their orders with Messrs Burns & Oates, Ltd. of Orchard Street, London, W., or with the publishers.

A MANUAL OF CHURCH HISTORY. By Dr F. X. FUNK, Professor of Theology at the University of Tübingen. Authorized Translation from the Fifth German Edition by Luigi Cappadelta. In Two Volumes. Demy 8vo. £1 net.

"Welcome is the translation of the late Dr Funk's Manual of Church History."—Church Times.

"In the present volume we have . . . the kind of translator we look for; and we cannot but hope that this painstaking labour will meet with the success it deserves. The translation is accurate, and is English; the printing is good; the use of different types helps both eye and memory; quotations from different languages, Greek and Hebrew included, are correctly reproduced; the references, with which every page teems, seem to be always true; to these the translator has added references to English editions where they exist. We do not know what more could have been done by translator or publishers to satisfy the most exacting critic . . . for everybody, as a book of reference, as a bibliography, and as a guide on almost every matter of ecclesiastical history, we know nothing more satisfactory or more complete."—Tablet.

THE LIVES OF THE POPES IN THE EARLY MIDDLE AGES. By Rev. W. K. MANN, Head Master of St Cuthbert's Grammar School, Newcastle-upon-Tyne. Vols IV-VIII. Demy 8vo. With Illustrations and Maps. 12s. each, net.

BIOLOGY. By Rev. ERIC WASMANN, S.J. With coloured Plates, and many Illustrations in text. Royal 8vo. 16s. net.

"A treatise on evolution by a Jesuit, and bearing the Imprimatur of the Roman Catholic Church, should be distinctly piquant. It is . . . a treatise of great learning. Certain of the chapters have been admitted even by Haeckel himself to be unsurpassed as an exposition of the evolutionary doctrine. The whole bespeaks the width of the author's scientific knowledge and the keenness of his intellectual powers. . . . The English translation, it should be added, could not be better done." —Scotsman.

THE PROBLEM OF EVOLUTION. By Rev. ERIC WASMANN, S.J. Demy 8vo. 6s. net.

"Father Wasmann's learned work appears most opportunely in its English form. . . . We . . . recommend all who are interested in the philosophical aspects of scientific research to Father Wasmann's able defence of the theistic evolution."—Downside Review.
